

I would urge the FCC to preserve the diversity of ideas and alternative viewpoints. Reducing the concentration of ownership of media outlets (TV, newspaper, radio, cable) would be a step in the right direction. Repealing existing, weak regulations is not the answer!